

William Walter Carlike

^d
Dusty Carlike

William Walter Carlike

Roland Carlile

Sunday, June 8, 1973

Roland R. Carlile

HEBER CITY — Funeral services for Roland Ray (Dusty) Carlile, 63, who drowned in Flaming Gorge Reservoir May 2, 1973, and whose body was recovered June 6, 1975, will be Monday 1 p.m., Heber 1st LDS Ward Chapel. Burial Heber City Cemetery.

Born April 26, 1912, Heber City, to Thomas Franklin and Emma Christensen Carlile. Married Leah Nelson March 17, 1934, Salt Lake City. Heber Light and Power Co. employee. Member Heber Valley Fire Department, 40 years. Former owner-operator, Dusty's Service.

Survivors: wife; daughter, Mrs. Arthur (Karen) Muir, Heber City; 3 grandchildren.

Glen Fillmore

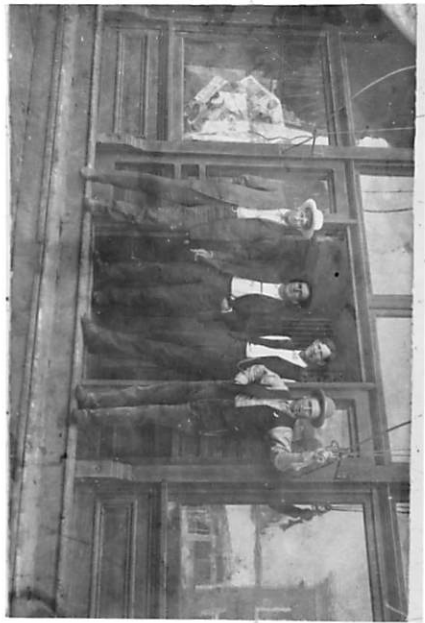

Vida Herdbeck

Glen Fillmore

"This building is the oldest building on main street as of 1984."

"It was first built by Alva Moroni Murdock from the basin. He & Parley Alexander Murdock ran it for some time." They separated ways.

"P.A. ran it for awhile after then sold it to Rone Turner who ran it for 10 yrs." He sold it to "Tink" who has run it for 45 yrs.

L to R:
1.
2.
3.
4. Will Bonner

Willis "Tink" Clyde Pool Hall

in 1910 W. B. Norton